- ◆ *This best of the region, cult status wine made from 80% Garganega /20% Trebbiano, is richly-textured, generous & expresses the essence of Soave in its fruit, flowers & mint. - 2005 Pinot Gris, Reserve, Trimbach, France 47 / 35
- ◆ 100% Pinot Gris, with grapes sourced from the Trimbach's own vineyards & about 100 growers with whom the family has long-term relationships. Not to be confused with Italy's Pinot Grigio, the Pinot Gris vine of Alsace is descended from the Pinot Beurot, originally from Burgundy. Abundant ripe fruit on the nose & a creaminess on the palate are brought to life with subtle acidity. Softer & less challenging than other varieties, this wine is still totally dry. A good choice for appetizers, fish & shellfish, poultry & other white meats as well as many lighter pasta, rice & Asian dishes.
- 2007 Grüner Veltliner, Weingut Heidler, Austria 55 / 42
- ◆ Smoky & stony, this wine takes its time to open, eventually acquiring a richly textured depth of quince, grilled peach & pear-skin aromas. It feels broad & soil-driven, demonstrating a seamless harmony & confident, vivid energy. Janis is always in a Gru-ney mood - these wines still pass under the radar in North America, The critics agree - 90pts Wine Spectator, 90pts Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, 92pts Best Buy Wine & Spirits Austria.
